

Summary of Comments on DRAFT TECHNICAL MEMORANDUM

Page: 2

Sequence number: 1

Author: damiller

Date: 08/12/2004 10:50:15 AM

Type: Note

Some sediment samples were taken for D/F - correct?

Page: 3

Sequence number: 1

Author: damiller

Date: 08/12/2004 10:50:51 AM

Type: Highlight

collected

Sequence number: 2

Author: damiller

Date: 08/12/2004 10:51:47 AM

Type: Highlight

clarify - just state how many samples for full list and how many for dioxins only.

Page: 6

Sequence number: 1

Author: damiller

Date: 08/12/2004 10:18:37 AM

Type: Highlight

"calcium, magnesium, potassium, phosphorous, and sodium are not typical in waste streams characteristic of the activities conducted at Site 2" - based on what information? Provide justification and details for their exclusion.

Sequence number: 2

Author: damiller

Date: 08/12/2004 10:17:30 AM

Type: Highlight

How were these potential risk drivers identified? If they exceeded the BTAG? If so, state that here for clarification.

Page: 9

Sequence number: 1

Author: damiller

Date: 08/12/2004 10:40:25 AM

Type: Highlight

Presumptive remedies - note, removal is not a presumptive remedy. Please refer to <http://www.epa.gov/superfund/resources/presump/intro.htm>

Sequence number: 1

Author: damiller

Date: 08/12/2004 10:38:43 AM

Type: Note

In the narrative provide the logic for selection of the ecological COPCs.

Sequence number: 2

Author: damiller

Date: 08/12/2004 10:39:22 AM

Type: Note

Why are the pesticides not ecological COPCs as they have BTAG and UTL exceedences? Provide the logic for selection.